DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendments to the specification, abstract and drawings are acknowledged. Consequently, objection to the specification, abstract and drawings is withdrawn.
2. Applicant's request to supplement oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.67 is acknowledged.
3. Applicant's amendment to claims 1 and 29 is not sufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1-45 under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1 and 29 merely recite abstract ideas. Although implemented as steps performed by a computer, the claimed computer could be the mind of a person and the method steps could be carried with that person using pencil and paper. Note also that the claimed method does not seem to accomplish what is recited in the preamble of the claims.

Claim Objections

4. Claims 29, 46 objected to because of the following informalities:
 - claim 46, line 6, "the first geometry" should be –a first geometry—
 - claim 29, line 6, "sec object" should be –second object—.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

Art Unit: 2171

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claims 1-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1 and 29 merely recite abstract ideas. Although the claims now recite a computer, the claimed computer could simply be a human mind. Claims 46, 47 although in the form of a computer program product and system merely comprise instructions and means to perform a mathematical algorithm without any practical utility.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention because it is not clear what is accomplished by the claimed method, apparatus and computer program product. Note that the specification seems to describe how to facilitate fast processing of queries to reduce cost and free up processing time. However no claim seems to accomplish that goal. The claimed invention seems to be an abstract idea or at best a mathematical algorithm without any practical utility.
